INTRODUCTION

...925, 926, (EGAD!) 927 fan names on the bulletin and probably 999 of them don't know what gives... CONCEPTION'S CONFUSION, you may wonder. cf.? Wha hopen?... So, this is explaining...

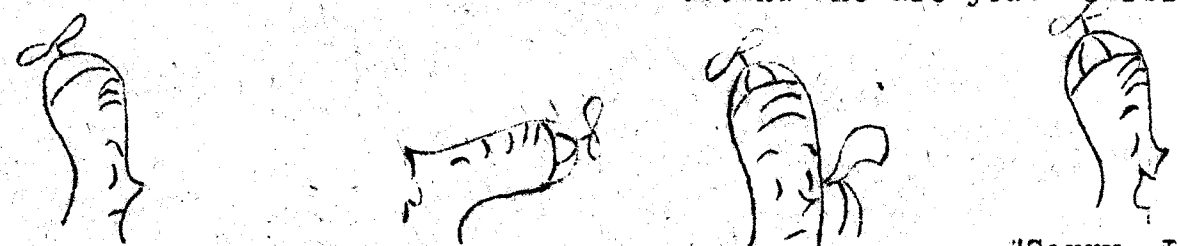

CONFUSION (cf.) is an amateur mag that crawls, sometimes too often, from Box 493, Lynn Haven Fla. (Shelby Vick ed.) 30 or 40 pages of hellaciously garish paper (like this) on a schedule laughingly referred to as monthly. 5¢ per.- 50¢ per doz. Starting with thirteen (#13), 10¢ per.- $1.00 per doz.....End of plug.

This is CONFUSION'S CONCEPTION of the Tasfic. Inspired by some filthy huckster's cartoonized version of political conventions, as shown in Colliers. Below we have puffins, and NEVER let some misled buiscuit Co. tell you they were meant to be eaten. Next page we have some of DavEnglish's exhilarating doodlings. In the Midst of Confusion, we have Lee Hoffman's mutchly talked about li'l peepul Thanks to de 'n' Lee for the welcomed aid of cutting their own stencils. Any resemblance between characters herein and human beings is extraordinary...after all they are fans!

"...and who are you? Garble'dy who?"

"Ahh--Ignore him. He's just trying to attract attention."

"Repeat that please?"

"Sorry. I can't underst...SAY, you must be Walt Willis!"

Hmmm...not under here

...not under here...

"All right,
damn you,
I'll bid thirty-five cents!"
